JOB INFORMATION

The Land Reclamation Inspector IV – Abandoned Mine Lands Option is a permanent full-time position with the Department of Labor. Positions are located in Birmingham, Alabama. This is highly responsible supervisory and administrative work in conducting inspections and planning for abandoned mine lands reclamation projects. Employees in this class are responsible for planning, developing, directing, and coordinating a major program in abandoned mine lands reclamation.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS

- Graduation from an accredited* college or university with a Bachelor's degree in agronomy, biology, forestry, hydrology, geology, mining engineering, or other natural or physical science
- Three years of progressively responsible experience in conducting inspections and supervising activities related to abandoned mine lands reclamation operations
- For the promotional register, current permanent status as a Land Reclamation Inspector III

NOTE

Experience in conducting inspections and supervising activities related to abandoned mine lands reclamation operations above the minimum will substitute for the required four-year degree on a year-for-year basis.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENT

Possession of a valid Alabama driver license.

EXAMINATION

- Open-Competitive to all applicants and Promotional to current state employees in the classification listed above.
- An evaluation of Training and Experience as shown on application will comprise 100% of the final grade for the open-competitive register and 95% of the final grade for the promotional register, with the remaining 5% based on the average of the applicant's service ratings for the last three years.

HOW TO APPLY

- Complete an Application for Examination Form available at www.personnel.alabama.gov, the above address, or any Alabama Career Center Office.
- Apply by mail or by fax. Application must be received by 5:00 p.m. on the application deadline date shown above. The State Personnel Department is not responsible for late receipt of applications due to mail service or faxing malfunctions.

*Individuals currently on the register MUST reapply to remain eligible for employment.
Veteran's credits are NOT allowed on promotional examinations.*

THE STATE OF ALABAMA IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

*Please refer to the back of this announcement for complete information on State Personnel's policy for accepting post-secondary and advanced degrees.

Except for pretest information provided by State Personnel to all applicants, you should not directly or indirectly obtain information about examinations. If you do, the State Personnel Director may do several things. One, you may not be given an examination. Two, you may be disqualified after an examination. Three, your name may be removed from a register. Or four, your name may not be certified from the register. (Rules of the State Personnel Board, Chapter 670-x-9). According to the Code of Alabama, 36-26-47, a willful violation of exam security is a misdemeanor. Any person who is convicted of this type of misdemeanor will not get a state job. If they are officers or employees of the state, they will be required to forfeit their office or position for five years.

If you know of anyone who has violated this policy, you should contact the Examination Manager at the State Personnel Department.

Applicants hired by the State of Alabama on or after January 1, 2012 will be subject to the E-Verify process pursuant to Act No. 2011-535.

State of Alabama Personnel Department Policy on Accepting College Coursework, Post-Secondary and Advanced Degrees

1. Specific college coursework required for a job, as well as Bachelor's, graduate, post graduate, and doctoral degrees will be accepted from the schools accredited by any of the six regional accreditation associations in the United States listed below:
  - Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS)
  - Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE))
  - Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU)
  - Higher Learning Commission (HLC)
  - New England Association of Schools and Colleges – Commission on Institutions of Higher Education (NEASC-CIHE)
  - Western Association of Schools and Colleges –Senior College and University Commission (WASC-SCUC)
2. Coursework or degrees from schools that have not been accredited by one of the above listed regional accreditation associations may be accepted if a regionally accredited school* considers the coursework or degree to be an acceptable prerequisite for admission to an advanced degree program. For example, if a regionally accredited school accepts an applicant's bachelor's degree for admittance into a graduate degree program, State Personnel will accept the degree. In the case of required college coursework (but no degree requirement), State Personnel will accept the college coursework if a regionally accredited school accepts the coursework towards a post-secondary degree (e.g., a bachelor's degree). This must be documented by a letter of acceptance from the regionally accredited school. State Personnel will review such requests on a case-by-case basis.

Note: This policy is subject to change. Certain state agencies may have additional requirements.

*The term "regionally accredited school" refers to an institution of higher education accredited by one of the above listed accreditation associations.
